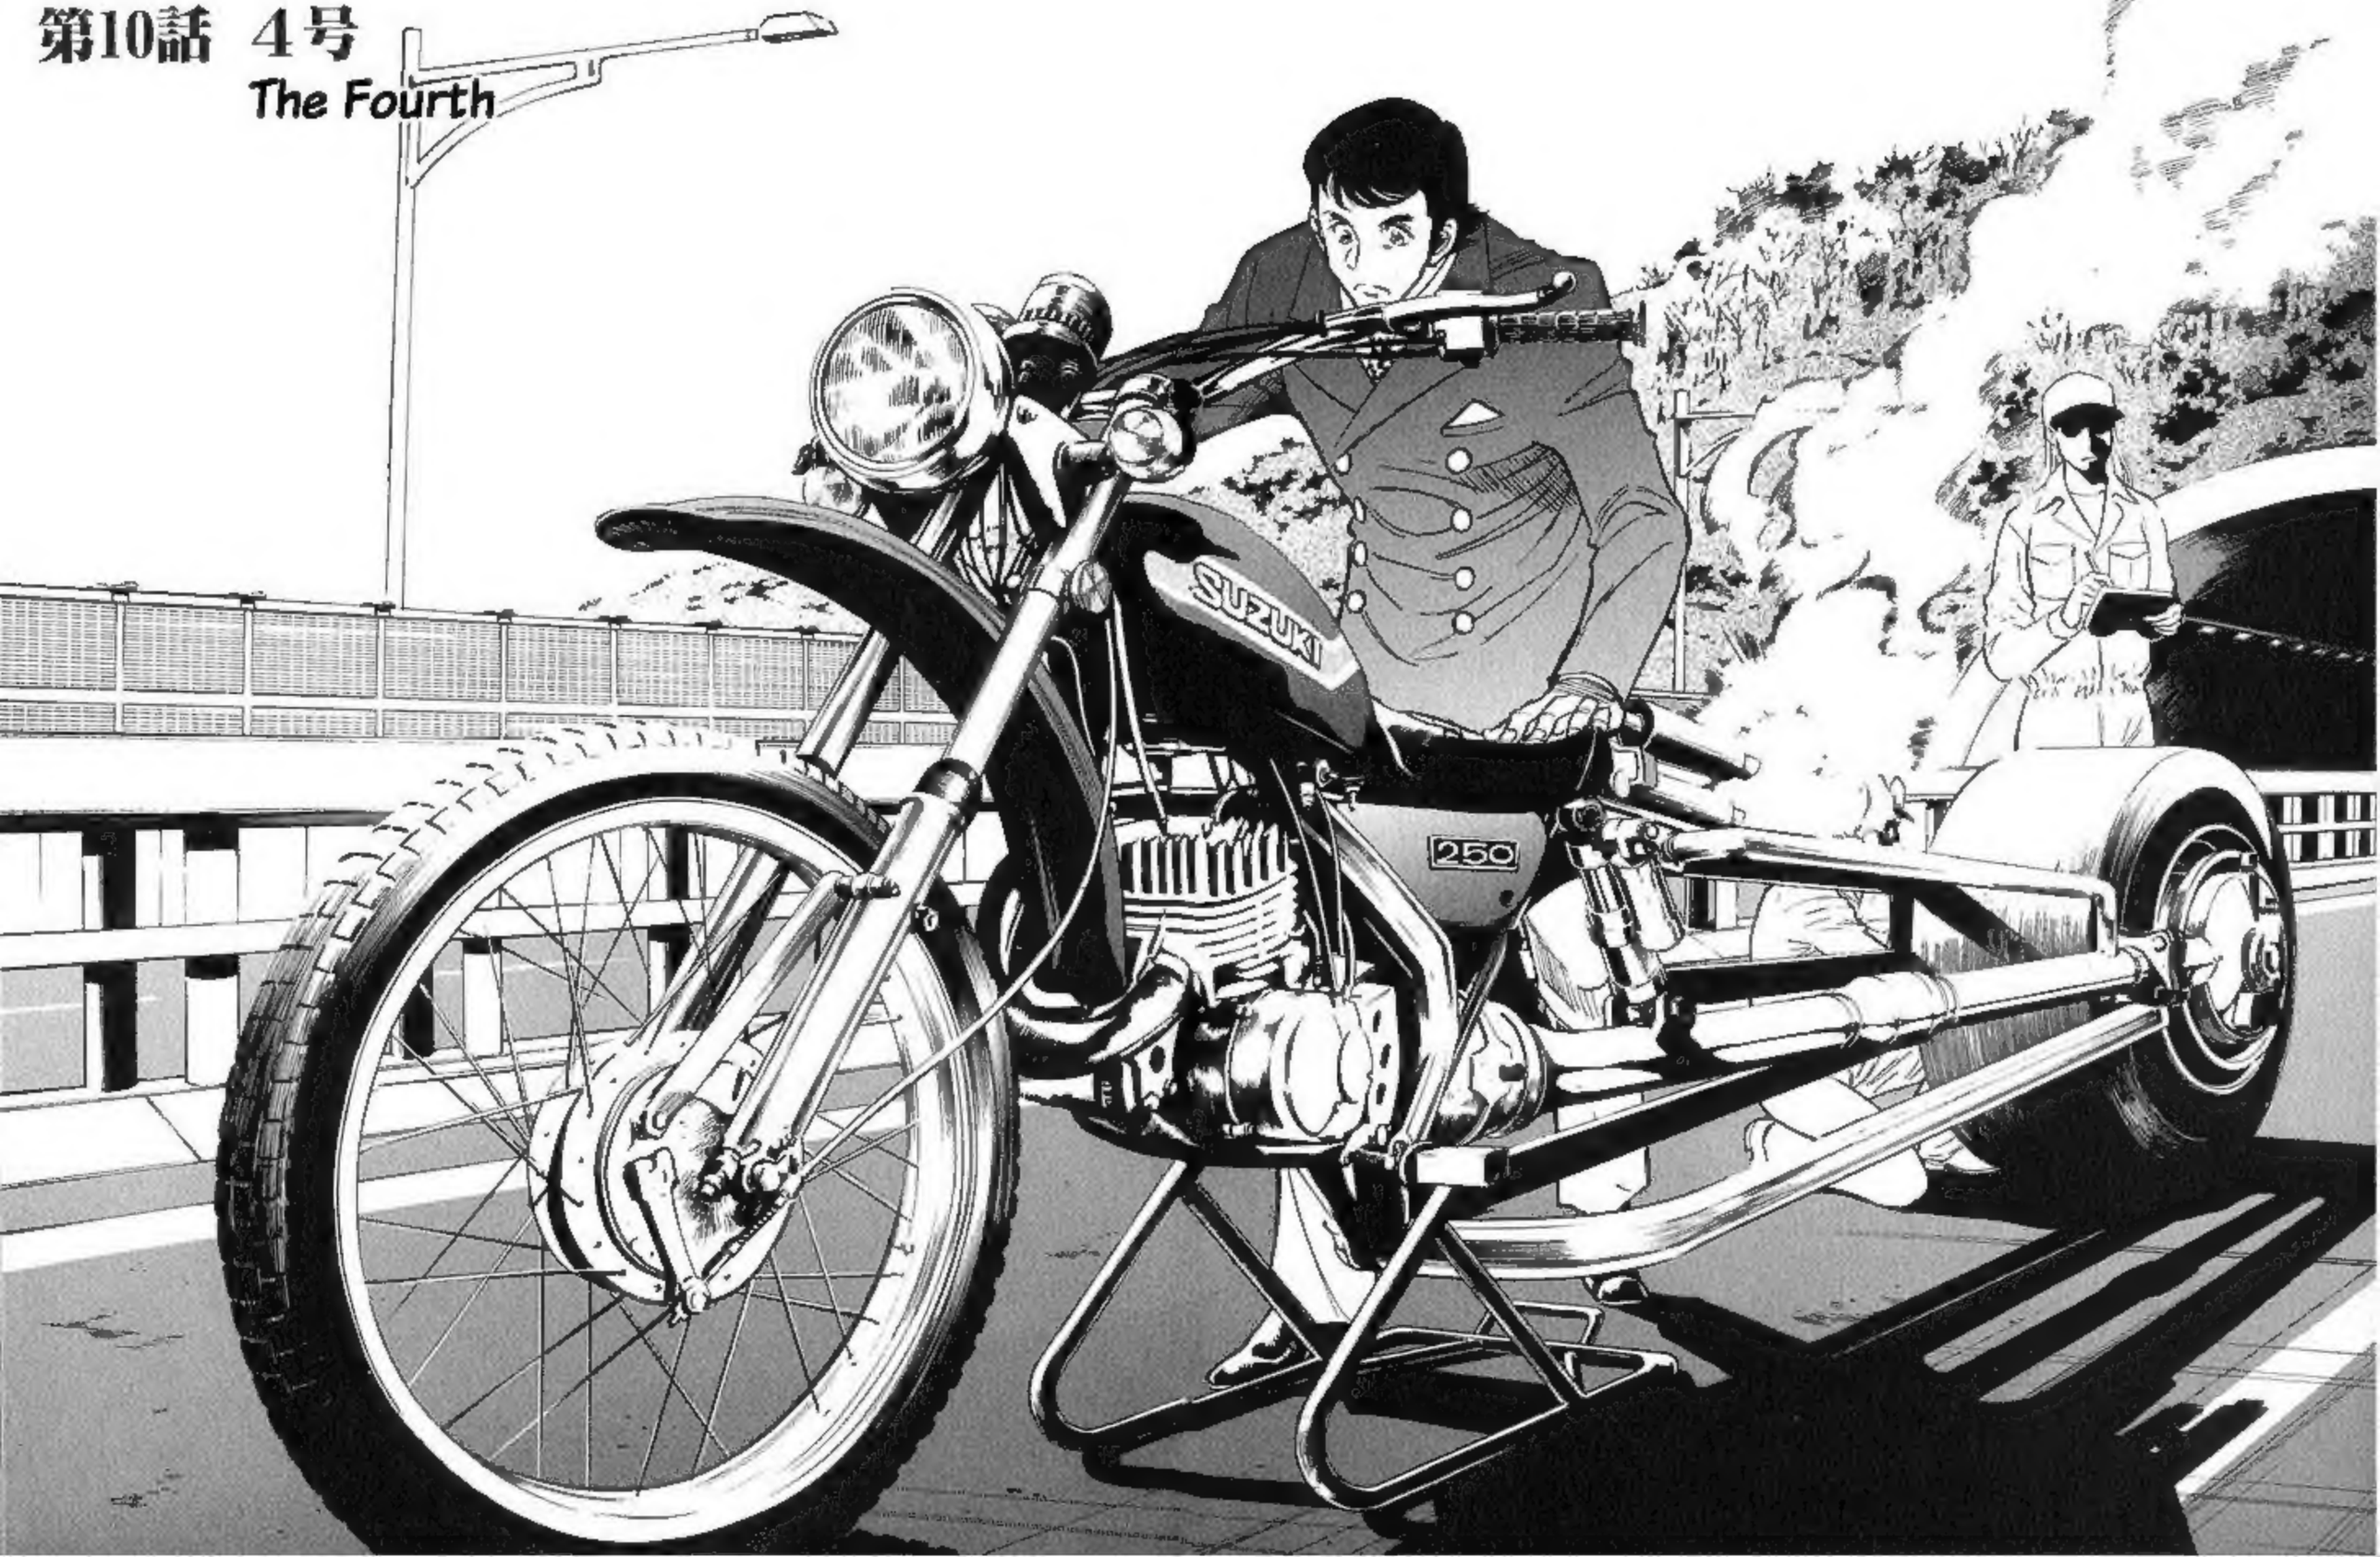
The Fourth



The max speed of Riderman's machine is 250 kph.
No matter how you look at it, the bore up this time completely exceeds specifications.
Hey, is this really a good idea?
Not to mention... Yuki's body, too...
But... The engine and the frame, I don't know if they can handle that much stress...
But to break into Shikoku, he'll need to go over 600...
It's like he's prepared to throw his life away at a moment's notice...
On the surface he might look cool and composed, but It's okay. Reinforce-ments are on their way.

Quickly. If you don't do something soon...
That's a relief...

But now I'm going to die a completely meaning-less death...
Sorry... There's so much I still wanted to do...
Hey...
cough cough
In this fight, there are no meaningless deaths.
You're wrong.

That's right... I will not let your deaths be in vain.
I'll make sure of it...
Just watch -
I'll tear it all down!
